

Lorenzo Colitto

Born in Rome he studied at the Conservatory of Santa Cecilia.

In 1993 he began studying historical performance practice. He furthered his studies at the Schola Cantorum Basiliensis in Switzerland with Thomas Hengelbrock and Chiara Banchini. From 1998-2003 he was a member and leader of Europa Galante performing throughout Europe, Japan, Australia, New Zealand and the Americas. He has made numerous recordings with Europa Galante released by Virgin-EMI. He can also be heard in recordings released by labels such as Harmonia Mundi, Virgin EMI, Opus 111, Tactus, Ambroisie, K617 and Alpha among the others. He has appeared as guest leader with many international ensembles (New York Collegium, Orquesta Barroca de Sevilla, European Union Baroque Orchestra, Accademia Bizantina, Al Ayre Español, Elyma, Amarillis, Pulcinella, Real Compañía Ópera de Cámara, Poème Harmonique etc..) and as conductor and soloist of the New York Collegium, City Chamber Orchestra of Hong Kong, the Zagreb Soloists and Collegium Melbourne. He has held master-classes in Spain, in Hong-Kong, in Australia (Fontecolombo Institute – Bridgetown WA) and was tutor of the JONDE-Youth Orchestra of Spain.

Sorrivoli - Roncofreddo (FC)
Italy

The three days will be devoted not only to violinists already acquainted with historical performing practice, but to all violinists desiring to acquaint themselves with the baroque repertoire, paying great detail to the sources and the style. The starting point of the course will be the Fantasia senza basso TWV 40:14/25 and the concerts for four violins TWV 40:201/204 of G.P. Telemann, with special emphasis on the principal aspects of performing practice and improvisation (using the examples from the Metodische Sonaten TWV 41). The students will also be able to prepare other works by other composers. There is an enrolment fee of 50€ to be sent with the registration form and the cost of the course is 120€ to be paid upon arrival (see housing information and prices below).

The registration form is due by July 24th and should be sent to: Associazione La musica interna, Via Altabella 11, 40126 Bologna, together with the receipt of the bank transfer of 50€. Banca Popolare dell'Emilia Romagna

The course will take place in the Poggio degli Ulivi, an agriturismo with swimming pool situated in a beautiful hilly and green area near Cesena, a few kilometres from the Adriatic Sea, for this special occasion devoted entirely to the course. The fee for a large room that can host up to 4 students, or a student with family, including a full breakfast, is 80€ per night (the cost is to be divided among the occupants of the room and will remain 80€, regardless of number of occupants). The students will be able to have their meals at the Ristorante Venturi in Roncofreddo, specialized in the local cuisine, for the special price of 13€ for a complete meal.
